

AFFIDAVIT

Me, (name and surname).....

born (date of birth).....

flat (place of permanent residence).....

I hereby declare that I am, at the of signing this document, already 18 years old (in the case that a person is younger than 18 years old, then in written or oral form, consent of a legal representative is obligatory), that I have no heart problems, I do not suffer lupus erythematosus, systemic scleroderma, skin diseases (psoriasis etc.), fever, poor blood clotting, hepatitis B and C, diabetes mellitus; allergic reaction to metals, kidney failure of all degrees of severity; Heart disease; Oncological diseases; Adenomas, fibromas, fibroadenomas of the mammary glands from epilepsy or hemophilia, I do not suffer from any skin disease, I do not show symptoms correlated to any past skin disease. I am not sick/not a carrier of such disease like HIV (AIDS), Hepatitis B and C, syphilis and other STDs. I am not exposed to any psychotropic drugs, especially any types of drugs or alcohol. I proclaim that I am not seduced. I do not suffer from any physical or mental illnesses and do not use any medicines or psychopharmaceuticals that could result in any manner the process of tattooing, piercing or permanent make-up.

If you have some, please write below:

.....
.....
.....

I undertake to take care of piercing and strictly abide by the rules of piercing caring. And if, despite that, some disease will happen, I will immediately contact studio Vesna tattoo boutique.

In compliance with the facts in this affidavit as correct and truthful, no perturbations should happen during piercings. However, in the event of any complications during the manipulations, the procedure should be immediately ceased per the nature of the incident. If this incident turns out to be more severe than it seemed at first glance, the consultation of the client's attending physician is necessary. I am familiarizing myself with the rules of the correction: the first correction will be free of charge if the tattoo is older than one month. Exceptions are tattoo on fingers, neck, ears, feet and also white tattoo (The price is starting from 800 czk). Correction of permanent make-up is always charged, charges are starting from CZK 2000.

I have attentively read the statement in full and, by my signature, agree with that.

Dated this day (number) of (month), year in Prague

Signature

Vesna

HOW DID YOU KNOW ABOUT US?

Recommendation ☐

Google ads ☐

Instagram ads ☐

Google maps ☐

Bloggers ☐

Other sources ☐

(If it is something else, please write below)

SCAN FOR WIFI

General Data Protection Regulation

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 16 thereof, Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission, After transmission of the draft legislative act to the national parliaments, Having regard to the opinion of the European Economic and Social Committee, Having regard to the opinion of the Committee of the Regions, Acting in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure.

REGULATION (EU) 2016/679 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of Personal Data and on the free movement of such Data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation)

1. Data Controller

The Data controller is the company Vesna Tattoo Prague, Máchova 439/27, 120 00 Vinohrady, (in the next appearance only "controller"), which hereby under Article 16(2) TFEU inform you about your rights and to process your data.

Within processing Data, we honour standards of GDPR, and we are abided by the following rules:

1. We arrange your Data for the precise and comprehensible purposes determined by law and for a term of indispensable necessity.
2. We do not give the Data of our clients or employees to a third party, except those who are directly involved in processes within the company for their necessity processing. Collaborators (employees, subcontractors) are forced to subscribe to the policy processing personal data of the controller and undergo regular training.

Article 21 of the GDPR allows an individual to object to processing personal information for marketing, sales, or non-service related purposes. This means the Data controller must allow an individual the right to stop or prevent the controller from processing their Personal data.

There are some instances where this objection does not apply. For example, if:

1. Legal or official authority is being carried out
2. "Legitimate interest," where the organization needs to process data in order to provide the data subject with a service they signed up for
3. A task is carried out for public interest.

When data is collected, data subjects must be clearly informed about the extent of data collection, the legal basis for the processing of personal data, how long data is retained, if data is being transferred to a third party and/or outside the EU, and any automated decision-making that is made on a solely algorithmic basis

1. Data arrangement

Any processing of personal data in the context of an establishment of a controller or a processor in the Union should be carried out according to this Regulation, regardless of whether the processing itself takes place within the Union. Establishment implies the effective and factual exercise of activity through stable arrangements.

1. Data sources

- Directly from a client (registration, questionnaire, agreement, declaration, proclamation, websites, e-mails, telephone, business cards)
- Public registers
- Automatic record of the electronic communication under the article 127/2005 Sb. and the regulation 357/2012 Sb.

1. Categories of data, which are the object of the processing

- Addresses and the identification data indispensable for identifying the subject (name, surname, photos etc.) and data, which enables to contact the subject of the data (e.g. Telephone number, e-mail and so on)
- Descriptive data
- Data provided directly from the subject with his agreement, despite the law (processing photographs, using the data for marketing etc.)

1. Purpose of the data application

- In compliance with the consent of the subject
- In compliance with the execution of the contractual negotiation
- In compliance with the archival science
- In compliance with the execution of the legislative obligation of the controller
- In compliance with the safety of the controller and his rights, or another affected persons (e.g. collection of the controller's debt)

1. Form of processing and protection of the data

The controller provides processing of the data. Data's processing is accomplishing in the business premises and workshops. Processing is provided by authorized by controller persons. Processing of the Data is provided through computer technology, alternatively manually in documentary form, with the data's safety observance.

Whoever would get access to the Data will respect the subject's safety rights and obeyed by prescriptions of the valid GDPR.

1. Period of the processing of the data

In accordance with the periods mentioned in the relevant contract in written form, the period of the data's processing will last time, which would be indispensable for securing both sides of the contract.

Ordinarily, Data are kept for no more than ten years, with the proviso that they will be used to make provided services better and in order to advertising.

In most cases, Data are processed in their entirety for a period of the duration of the contract. Afterwards, data are processed according to the statutory instrument

1. Handing over the data to other persons

Your data will be opened in case if it is indispensable and in accordance with GDPR rules.

Furthermore, personal data may be disclosed to the extent necessary to legal, economic and tax advisers. On request or in case of suspicion of the illegal application, personal data may also be passed on to public authorities.

1. Legal basis of the data's processing

The controller processes the data with the consent of the data subject, except in cases stipulated by law, where the processing of personal data does not require the permission of the data subject. In accordance with Article 6 (1) of the GDPR the controller may process the following data without the consent of the data subject:

- the data subject has given his consent for one or more specific purposes
- processing is necessary to perform the contract to which the data subject belong or for the implementation of measures taken before the conclusion of the contract at the request of that data subject

- processing is necessary to perform the legal obligation that applies to the controller
- processing is required to protect the vital interests of the data subject or another physical

one persons

- Processing is necessary for the legitimate interests of the relevant controller or third party, except cases where those interests take precedence over the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the entity.

1. Subject's rights

According to the GDPR, the data subject has the following rights:

- Request access to personal data, which the controller processes, i.e. obtains information from the controller, whether the personal data concerning him is processed.

If so, he has the right to obtain access to the following data and other information referred to in Article 15 of the GDPR.

- Request the correction or addition of personal data processed by the controller if they are inaccurate (Art. 16 GDPR)
- Request the deletion of personal data if they are covered by Article 17 of the GDPR
- require restrictions on data processing where they are covered by Article 18 of the GDPR
- Obtain the personal data which relate to and which are processed with his consent or to perform the contract or to implement the measures before the conclusion of the contract.
- Obtain this personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. Subject has the right to transfer this data to another controller, under the conditions and with the restrictions specified in Art. 20 GDPR.
- Has the right to object to the processing pursuant to Article 21 of the GDPR.
- The right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority - The data subject has the right to lodge a complaint against the alleged breach of a general regulation at the supervisory authority, particularly in the Member State of habitual residence or work performance.
- We will ask for indirect information, and without acceptance of each application according to the above points undue delay, no later than within one month, we will provide the required information or information on measures taken.
- This period may be extended by a further two if necessary and because of the complexity and number of applications months. In certain specific cases defined in the GDPR, we are not obliged to perform the request in whole or in part. This will be the case in particular if the request is manifestly unfounded or disproportionate, in particular, because it repeats. You may charge a reasonable fee concerning the administration costs associated with providing the requested information or refusing to comply with the request in the following cases. About this, the subject will always be informed. If we have reasonable doubt about the applicant's identity, we may request him to provide additional information to confirm his identity. We will store information about applying legal data for a reasonable period (typically three years) for proof and documentation of this fact, for statistical purposes, improving our services and protecting our rights.

1. Objection right

The subject has a right to raise a factual objection against the data processing at every time. In that case, data would not be processed until there will be more crucial reasons, or they will be necessary for juridical occurrences. You can object via e-mail and describe the exact situation, which you regard as the violation. If you object to using your data in marketing, there is no need to substantiate it.

Dated this day (number) of (month), year

in Prague / Signature